LOYAL SUBJECTS OF A KING

Fifty Young Men Swear Allegiand and Become Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben.

Last night fifty young men of Omaha solved the mysteries that are connected with the initiation of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben, and today they are loyal subjects of the king, notwithstanding the fact that they are somewhat tired and sore from keeping up the merry pace that was set for them by the lord chanceller, the grand mufti and the other titled dignitarics of the court. Many of the young men who were con ducted over the rough and thorny paths last night were of the best families of the city, while others were of high standing business circles, but this did not coun for the highest, as well as the lowest, has to submit to the same trying ordeal in orler to become entitled to wear the raiment and train in the same class with the knights. Some of the candidates protested against taking the fiving leap through space but after it was over there was considerable njoyment among them, due to the fact that they did not find the pine plank on which they landed more than half as hard as they supposed it was. Again they discovered that the flying horse was no harder to sit than the average untarned broncho and erable skill in disposing of the large crowd SECOND AND THIRD THIS TIME REVERSE that the exertions of the butting goat finally came to an end. Following the initiation at the castle of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben last night a sumptuous repast was spread, to which all were invited. With the spread there was

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, Synur or Figs, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxa-tive principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxa-tive, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package. CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
